Dallas County District Attorney's Office Investigators Shut Down Counterfeit Operation in Dallas

- WHAT: As a member of the North Texas Identity Theft Task Force, the Dallas County District Attorney's Office in conjunction with the United States (U.S.) Secret Service and the Dallas Police Department's Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) Team busted suspect Timothy Stephen Bolt, age 38, for manufacturing counterfeit $100 bills at a Dallas County residence.
- WHEN: Friday, July 27, 2007 (bust occurred at approximately 11:00 a.m. this morning)
- WHERE: Suspect was apprehended at 3618 Elva Ave., Dallas, Texas
- BACKGROUND: Dallas County District Attorney's Office investigators received information that Mr. Bolt was manufacturing counterfeit $100 bills at a Dallas residence on Elva Avenue. Using this information, the Dallas Police Department's SWAT Team executed a search and arrest warrant on behalf of District Attorney investigators and the U.S. Secret Service. Mr. Bolt is currently on 10 years probation for a previous Deadly Conduct with a Firearm offense.
